QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE
An Excerpt from the KEYS FOR LIVING

What Is Your Identity?

What is an identity? Are you born with your identity? Is it changeable or unable to change?

If someone were to ask: “Who are you?” what would you say? Most of us describe ourselves by what we do: “I’m a teacher.” “I’m an accountant.” “I’m in sales.” Others spend years studying genealogy, tracing their roots to learn who they are through their family lineage. But name tags aren’t necessary with God, who formed your heart and fashioned life itself. He knows your true identity—He knows the true you. ...

*“For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my mother’s womb.”*
(Psalm 139:13)

- Your identity is your distinct personality and physical characteristics.
 - Your identity includes your family lineage, your genetic makeup, your DNA.
 - Your identity incorporates your particular physical mannerisms and patterns of behavior.
- Your identity involves both your inner character and your outer conduct that distinguish you from everyone else.
 - Your identity reveals the individual characteristics by which you are known.
 - Your identity, as seen through your visible conduct, should consistently reflect your inner character.

*“As water reflects the face,
so one’s life reflects the heart.”*
(Proverbs 27:19)

Your Inner Identity vs. Your Outer Identity

The visible or outer you stares back at you in the mirror. The internal you—the real you within your heart and mind—is known by God. Discern the difference between the visible you and the real you.

- The Visible You—How you are known by others
 - Your appearance and appeal
 - Your personality and persona
 - Your masks and pretenses
 - Your verbal and visual communication
 - Your talents and gifts
 - Your actions and accomplishmentsThe book of Proverbs reiterates this fact regarding the importance of our actions. ...

*“Even small children are known by their actions,
so is their conduct really pure and upright?”*
(Proverbs 20:11)

- The Real You—How you are known by God
 - Your basic nature
 - Your inner character, convictions, and core beliefs
 - Your value system
 - Your thoughts and inclinations
 - Your deep-seated needs, dreams, and desires
 - Your innermost feelingsProverbs also reveals the reality that God knows us even better than we know ourselves. ...

*“A person may think their own ways are right,
but the LORD weighs the heart.”*
(Proverbs 21:2)

What Are Inner Emotional Conflicts?

Emotional conflicts within those who are struggling to establish a personal identity are common to every age group. These feelings are related as much to external events as they are related to inner thoughts and preoccupations.

- Anxiety—“I don’t know who I really am.”
- Depression—“I have no hope for the future.”

- Self-doubt—“I am so inadequate.”
- Self-consciousness—“I am unacceptable and unloved.”
- Low self-worth—“I am not good enough.”

“How long must I wrestle with my thoughts and day after day have sorrow in my heart?”

(Psalm 13:2)

What Are Outer Evidences of Inner Conflict?

According to the American Psychiatric Association inner emotional struggles with identity usually result in the following patterns of inconsistent behavior:

- Difficulty in making a positive spiritual commitment
- Unhealthy friendships
- Rejection of family values or blind acceptance of the values of others
- Struggles with sexual immorality
- Difficulty in establishing intimacy
- Excessive difficulty in choosing a career

“Such a person is double-minded and unstable in all they do.”

(James 1:8)

What Differentiates My View of Me from God’s View of Me?

God says ... you are accepted by Him. (Acts 10:34–35)
- Do you think ... you are alone?

(Hebrews 10:14)

- Do you think ... you are unloved?
God says ... nothing can take away His love. (Romans 8:38–39)

- Do you think ... you can’t be forgiven?
God says ... Your sins are forgiven and are gone. (Psalm 103:12)
- Do you think ... you don’t have enough strength?
God says ... He will strengthen you Himself. (Ephesians 3:16)
- Do you think ... you can’t have victory over a sinful habit?
God says ... You have victory through Jesus. (Romans 6:14)
